Bro. Charles Arns, S.M.

Bro. Charles M. Arns, S.M., died at St. Elizabeth hospital February 3. Death was attributed to complications following a series of heart attacks over the past few months. He was 60 years of age.

Known and beloved as "the Dean" for nearly a quarter of a century, Bro. Arns was active with his teaching duties and hobbies to the very end. He had been a member of the faculty since 1920 and organized the College of Commerce in 1922 and became its first dean. He taught accounting and advertising from 1938 until his death.

Bro. Arns was born in Cleveland and took his first vows in the Society of Mary in 1900. He graduated from St. Mary's Institute in 1910.

Requiem high mass was sung in the chapel February 7 and burial was in the brothers' cemetery Feb. 8.

Front Cover: Jean Wright '45 and Ada Kay Bomford '45, two of four co-eds who have volunteered to conduct the research on the project of compiling names of all former students, are shown at their herculean task. In just two months the girls have accumulated over 800 names. Ultimate objective of the project, set for the 1950 centennial, is the compiling, under one cover, the names of every former student from 1850 to the present.

Assisting in the work are Mary Ann Finke and Harriet Wetja.

A.S.T.P. Ends In April

Following announcement by the War Department in Washington that the army would shortly eliminate most of its Army Specialized Training Programs (ASTP) it became apparent that the University of Dayton unit would be dissolved in April. The army has indicated it would retain only those units training in dentistry, medicine and advanced engineering. The U.D. unit is training in basic engineering and would seem to fall under the category of those to be discontinued.

Reason for the decision by the War Department to discontinue the programs was the desire to reach the quota of 7,700,000 men in uniform set for the end of 1943. The army's strength is now estimated at 7,500,000 or 200,000 short of quota. An anticipated 110,000 men will be released from ASTP leaving 35,000 in dentistry, medicine and advanced engineering.

The ASTP was founded December 17, 1942, and Dayton's contingent of 250 was received August 9, 1943.

The complete exodus of the soldiers would leave the school with a civilian population of well over 600. Day school enrollment is 300, night school 300 and the balance of enrollment would be made up of government sponsored special courses.

Hilltop Happenings

FACULTY FUNCTIONS—Father John P. Kenny, O.P., assistant professor of philosophy, conducted the meeting of the Third Order of St. Dominic at the Loretto this month . . . Jerome Gibson, psychology professor, represented the university at the Ohio Association of Applied Psychologists convention in Columbus . . . THREE GOLD STARS ADDED TO U. D. ROLL OF HONOR

Total Dead - 18; Three More
"Missing In Action"; One Wounded

The university records with grief the names of three more sons to the Gold Star roll of honor. The total of those who have given their lives in World War II now stands at 18.

Lt. Edward Hempelman '39, was killed in action while on duty with the Marines in the South Pacific. Notification from the Navy department carried no details as to the date or exact location of Lt. Hempelman's death. It was known that he had once been stationed on New Guinea. His last letter to his parents was dated December 23. Lt. Hempelman was commissioned with the Marine Corps Reserve at Quantico, Va., January 30, 1942. Two brothers, Capt. Richard Hempelman '38 and Pvt. Theodore Hempelman '43 survive.

Lt. Francis X. Simmons '39 was killed in an accident at Albuquerque, N. M., when a jeep in which he was riding, swerved to avoid an obstruction in the road and he was thrown from the vehicle, receiving a fractured skull. Lt. Simmons was returning from maneuvers at the time. Lt. Simmons entered the army

- HONOR ROLL -

The honor roll of University of Dayton sons in the service which appears on pages four and five of this issue is a replica of the large displays hanging in the main corridor of St. Mary's hall. The plates ran originally in the Exponent.

The honor roll was compiled and erected by the department of Religion under the direction of Father Lawrence Monheim, S.M., recently transferred to an assignment in another city.

The listing is substantially accurate as of January 1, 1944. Ready for inclusion on the board are many additions of service men, promotions of others as well as gold star additions. Readers knowing of former students not included on the roll or of any inaccuracies are urged to contact the alumni office by phone or letter with the information.

Chapin '41, reported "missing in action" (January Alumnus) has been reported by the War department as having crashed into the sea near Nurru Island. Chapin's plane was shot down.

Letters from the Alumni

FIRST GENERAL?

Dear Jim:

Happened to see in the October Alumnus that Gen. Donovan was Dayton's first general. Hmmm. Hmmm. This time I caught you napping. Look up the Exponent, 1918-19—General Dickman, picture and all. Later on he was your commencement orator.

Father August Frische.

Editor's note: The Alumnus item intended to say that Gen. Donovan was our first general of World War II. Since that time another Dayton general has come to our attention.

Among former students discovered in the research now being conducted was the name of Gale Breene who attended S.M.I. in 1906-07-08. Mr. Breene is now Maj-Gen. Gale Breene of the U. S. Army Air Forces.

SEES DAYTONIANS

Dear Jim:

It's about time I get around to paying these '43 dues since it's the close of '43 already.

Please note my change of address as I imagine that accounts for my not receiving the Alumnus for several months.

Really hurts not to receive a few issues of the publication because it's rather hard to keep up with these U. D'ites all over the world.

However, we do manage to see a few of the Daytonians quite regularly. I now work in the same office with Capt. Bill Schroeder and see Paul Wagner rather frequently while chasing something or other around the Proving Ground. Then every now and then Maj. T. J. Hollenkamp will drop in at the Center on business from Detroit.

Joe Shimanek used to visit us when he was working in Baltimore before joining the Marines.

Give my regards to all the Faculty at U. D. and there's a standing invitation to anyone passing thru Baltimore to stop in at the house for a good session.

Sincerely,

Lt. Clem Young, '41

Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Md.

NEWS FROM DETROIT

Dear Jim:

I am enclosing my dues for 1943. Wish I could contribute more to such a grand school as University of Dayton. I left Fort Brady, Michigan, last August and attended Special Service school, Washington & Lee University, Lexington. While at school, my outfit moved to Camp Van Dorn, Miss., where I joined them in October. We left Mississippi three weeks ago and are now stationed at Fort Benning, Ga.

I have received several letters from my old pal Bob Payne since I have been in the service. Bob tells me that Dayton had to forget football this year. I was sorry to hear that as I followed the outcome of all the games as much as possible. I suppose Harry Baujan is lost without his football team or has he some of the fellows out in the stadium every day?

Maybe you would like to hear some news of some of the fellows who attended Dayton from Detroit. Bernard Brisse, '33, who played guard in football, is now married and the father of two children. The last I heard of him, he was working for his brother somewhere in the state of Mass. Harold Fearn, '33, is also married and is in the army, being inducted about three months ago. The last I heard of him he was stationed at Fort Custer, Mich. The last time I was home on furlough, I met Chuck Kantzler, who is now "Major" Kantzler. I understand he is now somewhere across the pond.

Do you ever hear from Danny Gill and the rest of the West Catholic fellows? I have often wondered what became of Hank Meyer, from Hawaii. If you have his address, I would sure appreciate your sending it to me. Is Brother Fred Paff still at Dayton. If he is give him my regards.

Very truly yours,

Cpl. Joseph Curran, '34
Ft. Benning, Ga.

PADLEY ON ROI RAID

Capt. John J. (Jack) Padley, U.S.M.C.R., the blonde bomber from Philadelphia, who scoured the Buckeye gridiron a few years ago, reached the pinnacle of achievement

A.S.T.P. CAGERS WIN 26 OUT OF 28

Dayton's soldier-students of the ASTP have emulated those basketball stars of the St. Mary's Cadets days with their phenomenal seasonal record of 26 wins in 28 starts. Playing representative amateur teams in the Valley as well as members of the fast Community league and teams from the adjacent flying fields, the ASTP contingent, strictly a volunteer unit, has been a distinct credit to the service and the university.

In defeating Johnson Tool their last time out, the Armoraiders won the Community league championship.

when he participated in the Marines' heroic attack against Roi air field in the Marshalls. Let Marine Correspondent Sgt. Bob Cooke of Associated Press tell the story:

"Directing an assault wave sweeping directly across the shell-pocked, sniper-infested air field, Capt. Padley jumped into a shell crater and found two dead Japs there. He turned to give his men an order.

"A movement by one of the 'dead' Japs caught the corner of his eye. He bayoneted the faker, and before he had time to disengage his weapon, heard his men shout, 'Look out, captain!'

"Drawing his bayonet free, he whirled in time to meet the second Jap, who was leaping at him with drawn knife. The force of Capt. Padley's move carried the bayonet right through the onrushing Jap and brandished him in the air.

"The effect on watching marines and Japs was electric. Nothing could stop the leathernecks' cold steel. The remaining Japs elected to lie low and try sniping from the rear or at night."

BOOK TO CLASSMATES

Copies of the book, "Marching Through the Year," by Paul J. Staley, '16, have been sent to all members of his class. The books are the compliments of the author.

Mr. Staley's book is a collection of short essays which have appeared periodically in the Cincinnati Post. Mr. Staley resides at 6601 Iris ave., Cincinnati 13, O. He is at present working as a Field Director for the American Red Cross, stationed at Ft. Whiting, Mobile, Ala.

Alumni Dramatics

First step in the organization of an alumni dramatic club was made Sunday, February 20, with the presentation in the gym of the one act play, "Lily" by a cast composed entirely of alumni. The success of the presentation by the volunteer alumni group gave rise to the possibilities of a permanent club.

Maurice R. Reichard '35, director of music, has volunteered to help organize the club and to direct the various vehicles to be presented from time to time. Any former student interested in any phase of dramatics, —acting, makeup, scenery or technical work, is urged to contact Mr. Reichard at the university.

EDITS "GANG NEWS"

The Alumnus takes this opportunity to award a special orchid to Capt. Bob Butler '42 for his grand work in editing the "Gang News", a breezy, newsy, mimeographed account of the comings and goings of the boys of '42. A recent issue coming to our attention contained news of forty-twoers from every corner of the globe.

Capt. Bob's editorial office is McClellan Field, Calif. His assistant is W/O Clarence Dahm.
